RECOMMENDATION	GOVERNMENTS REACTION
6. Corporation of Government Extension Agencies so that they specialise in few activities to develop their competitiveness. Encourage public-private partnership among the enterprises in setting up support systems for small scale enterprises.	Blanket corporatisation not feasible. More than 20 agencies of SIDO given autonomous society structure. The Govt, would also provide all encouragement and support for any initiative taken by industry associations in this regard. Schemes being implemented by the Department, SIDO and NSIC would be restructured to promote public-private partnership in setting up of support systems, particularly in technology development, extension and training centres, etc.
7. A flexible broad based district enterprise promotion agency (DEPA) be set up to replace DICs.	Not feasible at present.
8. Clusters should become the unit/focus of Govt, support programmes. The institutional mechanism and the assistance measures should revolve round the clusters.	Accepted. Attention will be given in providing assistance for improving infrastructure and other facilities in close interaction with the cluster associations.
9. 70 per cent of priority sector allocated to small scale sector should be earmarked for tiny sector.	Accepted with some modification. 60 percent of priority sector lending allocated to the small scale sector would be going to tiny units. Units up to five lakhs of investment will get 40% and new segment of tiny units between Rs. S lakhs and Rs. 25 lakhs of investment will get 20%.
10. Revitalise the State Financial Corporation (SFCs) and Small Industries Development Corporations by IDBI in association with S1DBI.	The suggestion has been accepted. The amendment of the SFC Act to be considered by the Min. of Finance.
11. Fiscal concessions for units manufacturing reserved items as a transitional measure for a period of five years by granting full exemption upto a turnover of Rs. SO lakhs, etc.	Accepted in principal and to be taken up for detailed examination as a part of Union Budget exercise.
12. Providing assistance at confessional rate of Interest for technology development and modernisation by SSI.	TDMF scheme of SIDBI already been modified.
13. Nayak Committee recommendation on credit to SSIs endorsed for full implementation by RBI, particular stress on making available 20% of annual turnover as working capital, along with other recommendations for improving credit supply endorsed.	This has already been accepted. Govt, will make all possible efforts to make available credit to SSI. RBI and Department of Banking requested to set up a credit monitoring agency and publish reports on credit flows to the SSI, at least once a year.
Reservation of items for exclusive manufacture in the small scale sector be abolished.	Not accepted.
